REFLECTION by Loyola Press, a Jesuit Ministry

Each temptation that Jesus faces offers insight into the spirituality we hope to develop as we keep the forty days of the Season of Lent. We can trust God to provide for our material needs. We worship God because God alone has dominion over us and our world. We can trust God to be faithful to his promises. Jesus' rejection of the devil's temptations shows that he will not put God to the test. Grounding himself on the Word and authority of Scripture, Jesus rebukes the devil by his confidence in God's protection and faithfulness.

Luke ends his report of Jesus' temptation in the desert by noting that the devil departs for a time. The implication is that the devil will return. Jesus knows that he will be tempted again in the Garden of Gethsemane. The depth of Jesus' trust in God is shown most fully when Jesus rejects the temptation to turn away from the task God has given to him. Jesus' final rebuke of the devil is his sacrifice on the Cross.

Jesus' responses to the temptations of the devil teach us how we can respond to temptation. As we start our journey through Lent, this Sunday's Gospel calls us to adopt the same confidence that Jesus had in the face of temptation: God's word alone will suffice, God's promise of protection can be trusted, and God alone is God.

Living Simply during Lent In response to Pope Francis' urgent call to care for “Our Common Home” you may wish to take the Laudato Si’ pledge by praying with and for creation, living more simply and advocating to protect our common home. See <http://livelaudatosi.org> and <https://livelightly.nz/take-action>.

PROLIFE FACTS

Though Māori make up only 15% of the population, 23% of all abortions in 2017 were performed on Māori women. Māori women had 3,111 abortions in 2017. Nevertheless, the Law Commission proposes that we need more abortion clinics in areas with large Māori populations. But Voice for Life thinks that we should be first looking into this issue in more depth to see why so many Māori wahine are having abortions, and what abortion is doing to Māori whanau and communities.

Easter Rosters

at Warkworth

Ministers needed for:

- Holy Thursday Mass
- Good Friday Liturgy
- Easter Vigil (7 pm)
- Easter 10.30 am Masses.

We also need people willing to have their feet washed on Holy Thursday.

If you are able to volunteer for any of these ministries please speak to Fr Ralph or telephone Bernadette during office hours on 425 8545 Wednesday & Friday 9 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Your talent is God's gift to you.

What you do with it is your gift back to God.

We need you. Every church needs the time, talent and dedication of volunteers to make ministry happen!

You don't have to serve everywhere or every week.

We value your talents and want your feedback.

We want to help you discover and fulfill the plan God has for your life. Serving in your church is a great way to connect with other believers and explore various ministry opportunities. You never know what God will reveal to you as you're faithful in the little things.

We especially need volunteers for our Ww Children's Liturgy Program

Material is provided and if necessary you will be paired with another leader until you feel confident.

We always need more volunteers across all of our church ministries, to 'lighten the load.'

There are forms at the back of Warkworth church, have a chat to Father, or email/call the parish office.
