REFLECTION

14th January 2nd Week of Ordinary Time, 2018.

1 Samuel 3:3-10. 19.

Samuel hears a voice calling him, and thinks it is the prophet Eli calling. Eli finally tells him to answer God – “Speak, Lord, your servant is listening” and so learned to be aware of God’s voice, and pray to follow that voice during all of his life. May we too learn to listen to God’s voice and pay due attention to that voice.

The Psalm puts into our mouths a request to be able to listen to God, especially in studying His word in the Bible, and practicing justice towards those around us.

Paul points out to the Corinthians and to us that our bodies are gifts of God to us and for our use – not our own property but as temples of the Holy Spirit, and as a means of giving glory to God. It is hard to see this perspective of faith in the use of what we basically consider our own, but it is hard to balance a true respect for blessings and suffering unless we come to this understanding of our bodies as God’s gift to us.

And this awe-inspiring Gospel. The disciples and ourselves are invited to understand just who Jesus is, and how he wants us to enter into the heart of the Father and the Spirit and have His own unity with them. He wants to plunge us into that heaven of love by accepting Him as the Son of the Father and the Giver of the Spirit. John the Apostle was aware of this invitation and lived out his life in answer to the invitation. The Apostles lived out this vocation in their own lives, sharing with others this joy of being God’s Family. May we enjoy the perhaps limited version of this reality now, but see it growing from day to day in our relation with those around us in the future. We have all heard the invitation of Christ and that is why we are here today – may our answer continue to grow in intensity of love and belonging from day to day in the future.

There is nothing too big or too small to bring to God's attention.

Anyone may call their prayer group or their church to prayer when a need is recognised.

Advert Lech and Hazel Ozieranski are due have a baby in mid February and will be looking for a Catholic Nanny, if you can help and think you're suited to that kind of job please contact Lech 021-710-726 or Hazel 021-214-4432.

PLEASE Think about other ministries that we may be able to START or RESTART in our parish, Caring, Prayer Group, Bible Study, Young parents or mothers group, Parish Council.Youth. There may be others that I haven't thought of. Let Me Know.

Think about what YOU can do make this parish more vibrant.

We used to have a very successful Marion Mothers Group a long time ago now perhaps 30 years, and in that group we had a leader who brought us to the Lord and His Mother Mary through a bit of study, while the children played, with one of the parents taking turns to supervise them. With so many young children (preschool) in the parish now it might be an ideal time to reintroduce something like this, and it's a good way to get to know each other too.

Parish Picnic in February – Date to be decided. Maybe in Puhoi this year.

Don't forget we always need more Readers and Eucharistic Ministers to spread the load, so if you would like to help with this ministry please se Fr Sean or Lauren Boakes.

Cleaners and Flower arrangers etc Please don't leave it to someone else when you can do just as well. Please Give it a go.

NZ Catholic: Parishes to get euthanasia bill letter from bishops. NZ abuse inquiry likely to include churches. 'Our Father' translation not on ICEL agenda yet. Clergy appointments in four NZ dioceses.

Come and see .....

The Auckland Diocesan Peace and International Justice Committee is committed to stand in solidarity with people of other nations and faiths in the face of injustice.

We are looking for people with a strong interest in global issues to join us: to exchange ideas, share knowledge and act together for peace and a better future for our children.

Come and see for yourself.

Prospective members please send an expression of interest to peterg@cda.org.nz. See the Justice & Peace Commission website www.catholicjusticeauckland.org.nz for more information on the committees and the work of the Commission.

Applicants must be New Zealand Residents eligible to work in New Zealand or hold a valid work permit.

Please send cover letter, application form and CV to Leanne Killgour, HR Manager, leannek@cda.org.nz.

Applications close 26 January 2018

Well the holiday is over now and I am back at work, sorry for the lack of news but not everyone is working yet.

Anyway, I had a lovely time catching up with my little 2yr old and 7mth old grandsons. The 2yr old Eddie, is such fun to be around most of the time, and had quite a few small milestones while I was there, and his speech is getting better every day since he had grommets put in and is able to hear a lot better.

The other little fella Charlie 7mnths is a bit grizzly but when he's happy he is great and laughs and giggles a lot. I love them both to bits. I also met the newest arrival 6 weeks old Great grand-daughter Grace for the first time too and she is lovely also. Well this has filled up this space nicely... Thank-you Lauren
