Introduction
A major theme of the Scripture readings is "Lasting wealth." These readings continue a theme of compassion for the needy poor and contain a harsh warning for those who feast while others starve. Yet all of us are beggars before God. The way ahead for us who are the Christian faithful is sketched out in a wonderfully clear manner.

Prayer / Reflection:
Mother Teresa said:
'The greatest evil in the world today is the terrible indifference towards one's neighbour, which is so widespread.'

Lord, save us
from the scourge of indifference.
Open our hearts when they are closed, soften them when they are hard,
and warm them when they are cold,
so that we may listen to the cries of the needy, and bear the fruits of love.

On Saturday 17th September an estimated 450 men, women and children took part in a March for Life in Christchurch. The aims of the March for Life were to:
1) celebrate life;
2) remember the more than 540,000 pre-born babies who have lost their lives to abortion in NZ since 1978;
3) increase public awareness of abortion, and its impact on women, families and society
4) bring all New Zealanders of good will together, united in the one common vision of making abortion unthinkable.

The marchers gave witness to the community to the sanctity of life of every human being from conception to natural death. They also gave a strong message to Parliament and government that a significant proportion of everyday New Zealanders reject the Abortion Legislation Act 2020, which fails to recognise the humanity of the unborn child and its right to life. Scripture Note:

First Reading (Amos 6:1,4-7). Amos was the prophet of the needs of the poor. He spoke to the complacent wealthy of both Judah and Israel, who were unconcerned about what was happening to the country, which was about to be destroyed by the Assyrians. Indeed, by their lavish life-style they were undermining the very fabric of the country. And they hadn't the slightest concern for the plight of the poor. (This is precisely the sin of the rich man in the Gospel). Amos warned them that they would be the first to be led off into exile. Within a generation the kingdom of Israel was overrun.

Second Reading (1 Timothy 6:11-16). At baptism the Christian makes his profession of faith, in imitation of Christ who, before Pilate, spoke up for the truth. As Jesus was faithful to his call in the face of hostility that led to his death, so Christians facing persecution, and who live in hope of 'the appearing of the Lord', should be faithful to God's call.

Gospel (Luke 16:19-31). (For convenience I refer to the rich man as Dives). Nowhere in the parable is it suggested that Dives' wealth was ill gotten or that Lazarus is a victim of his oppression. What then is his sin? His sin consists in the fact that cushioned by a lavish life-style, he is oblivious to the presence of a poor man at his gate. Dives was a worldling who didn't look beyond the good things in this life.

This is a parable about the responsibility of wealth. Some of the harshest words in the Bible are directed at the uncaring rich. Lazarus was rewarded, not for his poverty, but because God is the vindicator of the poor.
