Today we begin the Calendar Year of the Church.

Jeremiah writes of the Lord's unswerving fidelity to David being fulfilled in the Messiah being counted among his descendants. Paul prays that when this Messiah comes He will strengthen our hearts in holiness. In the Gospel, Jesus points his disciples towards the unknown aspect of God's future which always calls us to be ready to respond. So let us see how we can respond to Christ's coming in this time of preparation for Christmas. Meals and gifts, joy and happiness are very much part of Christmas. Reconciliation, Communion – receiving Christ and offering Him to the Father – can this be our gift to Him?

Fr Sean

It is beautiful and a great grace to be completely and forever consecrated to God at the service of our brothers and sisters.
