NOTES

Thank you for serving. If you can't fulfil a Sunday duty, please swap with someone in the same column, or ask someone else in the same column to do yours, or ask Maureen to do it.

NB if you ever offer to do, or add, or change a part of the mass, do check with Father and others on the roster in plenty of time.

Readers Please liaise with your partner and check that what you have prepared is the correct reading for the day and open in the lectionary. Do ask for help with tricky words or phrases, rather than make a mistake. Do not read out the short explanation or synopsis in the lectionary that is written in red, in italics. This is NOT part of the reading.

Please keep silence after each reading and before you say "the word of the Lord", (DO NOT SAY "this is the word of the Lord") also after the first reading and the psalm, for the time it takes to silently and quickly say a 'Glory be to the Father'. The second reader must sit on a chair during the first reading, then join the first reader for the psalm. First reader sits on a chair at the end of the psalm.

Prayers of the Faithful Please have 4 or 5 prayers on paper and read them from the lectern. Walk up to the lectern as the Creed is ending, or after the priest's introduction to the prayers of the faithful. Stay in position until Father has finished the concluding prayer and everyone says "Amen". Then walk off the altar, turn and bow, walk back to your place.

Offertory Please take the basket of food bank offerings on the second Sunday of the month. Please take up the bread and wine at the start of the offertory, do not wait until the collection has been taken.

Special Feasts and Traditions Do please check the laminated sheets hanging in the sacristy to see if coloured vestments, banners, sequence, hymns, prayers in different languages, palms etc. are needed. Each person who sets up has also been given a copy of this and also a copy of the setting up notes. Do ask if you need another copy.

Everyone If you see holy water, candles, hosts, wine, toilet paper, vacuum cleaner bags, etc running out, please tell father, who will bless more water, bring supplies from Warkworth or give you the money for vacuum bags.

Remember before mass starts, all the special ministers for the mass, will gather with Father at the back, then process in order: altar server with cross, reader holding lectionary aloft, other special ministers, then Father. When the procession reaches the front, the cross bearer and lectionary bearer go straight on to the altar without kneeling or bowing. Everyone else bows then Father walks to the altar, the cross and lectionary, are put in their places and the other special ministers return to their places. The two bearers step off the altar, turn, bow and return to their places.
